"Carthage High School"

(1975)

Carthage High School, Carthage, Ill.

Sports play one of the most important parts of a high school career. Almost everyone, from freshman to senior, has special memories connected with a sports event. To excell in sports as CCHS has done requires more than just good players, It also takes a good coach, which CCHS has known in Mr. Ed Test. Coach Test dedicated most of his time to CCHS and always put forth his best effort, as his record here shows.

He also made his classes a joy to be in and he even taught us a little algebra along with his famous opinions concerning girls' athletics.

Coach Test has moved on to new experiences now. We at CCHS, though, will always remember Ed Test. Therefore, it seems fitting to dedicate our 1974-75 yearbook to him and all the good times he gave us during his stay here at CCHS.
